How would you classify the concerns raised with regards to the issue? (Does the issue raise concerns about gender, socioeconomic inequality, the environment, public health etc.? Justify your classifications as best as you can.)

Are there important historical dimensions to this issue? If so, how would you describe them? (If the provided materials do not explicitly delve into the history of the issue, use context clues to make inferences and hypotheses.)

What do you think needs to happen in order for the issue to be addressed/resolved? (Who needs to be involved and what might their strategy be for creating sustainable, positive change?)

Where might you go to find more information about this particular issue and its history? (Be as specific as possible.)
