

Serving the National Capital Area

WORLD AFFAIRS COUNCIL OF WASHINGTON, DC

MEDIA ADVISORY

Matthew Larkin

202.293.1051

U.S. FOREIGN POLICY: THE BATTLE OF IDEAS

Competing Approaches to the Post-9/11 World

With military operations ongoing in Afghanistan and Iraq and new threats on the horizon, questions remain about the effectiveness of the Bush administration's foreign policy vision and what central principles should guide America's engagement in the world in the years ahead. Join our distinguished panel of foreign policy experts for what will surely be an exciting debate of competing versions of U.S. national security strategies:

FEATURED GUESTS

Richard Haass, President of the Council on Foreign Relations

Richard Perle, Resident Fellow at the American Enterprise Institute

Anne-Marie Slaughter, Dean of the Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs

Moderated by Marvin Kalb, Senior Fellow at the Joan Shorenstein Center on the Press, Politics, and Public Policy

WHEN: THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2006
6:30 – 8:00 pm

WHERE: Ronald Reagan Building and International Trade Center – Atrium Hall
1300 Pennsylvania Ave, NW, Washington, DC

CONTACT: Matt Larkin
Director of Public Programs
World Affairs Council of Washington, DC
202.293.1051
mlarkin@worldaffairsdc.org

###