INSIDE MUSHARRAF'S PAKISTAN Assessing Reform Efforts

An ally in the global war on terrorism, the events of September 11 have underscored the significance of a stable and prosperous Pakistan. Our panel of experts will assess President Musharraf's attempts to address the political, economic, and social issues facing the country. We hope to have a lively discussion about whether the country, under its current path, will be able to resist militant Islamists, and develop into a democratic, pluralistic, and economically flourishing country.
