

WORLD AFFAIRS COUNCIL WASHINGTON, DC

Presents Understanding Brazil

Brazil is the 7th largest economy in the world and one of the most powerful emerging economies. As the leader in industrial manufacturing and foreign direct investment in Latin America, it is poised to become one of the top five economies soon. Its increased presence in the international community on topics ranging from renewable energy, international trade, to national security has put Brazil in the headlines daily. However, with development comes growing pains, and with the upcoming Olympics and World Cup games nearing there have been increased domestic tensions due to economic growth disparities and development projects.

Join the World Affairs Council – Washington, DC as we explore Brazil's growth and development, and how it will navigate these complex issues in an in depth Professional Development Workshop.

Participants will receive a certificate for 6 professional development credits hours.

Workshop topics will include...

- Brazil's status in the world's economy
- Brazil's relationship with the BRICS
- Natural resources: from the Amazon to the oil fields
- US-Brazil relations
- Curriculum Development Materials
